

Bahia Resort Hotel
San Diego, California
October 6 through 10, 1997

Exhibitor/Event Prospectus

The 17th IEEE/NPSS Symposium on Fusion Engineering will be held October 6-October 10, 1997 at the Bahia Hotel Conference Center in San Diego, California. This event is internationally recognized as the premier symposium in fusion engineering. Over 300 scientists and engineers will participate in this event highlighting the latest developments in fusion engineering. Featured topics and speakers include:

- "DT Experiments in the JET Divertor Tokamak" - M. Keilhacker (Joint European Torus)
- "The KSTAR Tokamak" - J. Kim (Korea Basic Science Institute)
- "Engineering Overview of the NSTX" - C. Neumeyer (Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory)
- "The LHD Stellarator" - O. Motojima (National Institute for Fusion Science)
- "Wendelstein VII-X" - F. Wagner (IPP-Garching)
- "The National Ignition Facility (NIF)" - J. Paisner (Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory)
- "The French Laser MegaJoule (LMJ) Target Chamber" - D. Schirmann (CEA Bruyères le Châtel)
- "Experiments on JT-60U" - A. Sakasai (Japan Atomic Energy Research Institute)
- "TFTR Retrospective" - D. Meade (Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory)
- "Power Plant Technology Issues & Needs" - R. Conn (University of California, San Diego)
- and many more

WE INVITE YOU TO PARTICIPATE AS AN EXHIBITOR
AND/OR EVENT SPONSOR AND THEREBY SUPPORT THE IEEE/NPSS SYMPOSIUM ON FUSION ENGINEERING AND GAIN VALUABLE BUSINESS CONTACTS!

The four day show will provide you with excellent opportunities to display your particular product or service and to meet with the government program representatives and the engineering community. A variety of technical poster sessions, coffee breaks, and receptions will be held in the exhibit hall to create the environment needed to attract conferees to the event.

Exhibit space is limited to 17 booths and will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis, so register now to guarantee your participation in this prestigious event.
